Dear Most Precious Blood Family,

It is time to once again begin a new liturgical year and a new season of preparation. Anytime we see the color purple in our liturgical cycle is an invitation to repentance and readying ourselves for God to do something exciting. Advent is a "Season of Hope" to prepare our hearts for Christmas. The word Advent is from the Latin word adventus and means coming. It also means arrival and appearance. It is an opportunity to see. Are you ready to take advantage of this opportunity?

Back in August, I helped lead a retreat for High School aged men discerning the priesthood. It was called Quo Vadis, meaning "Where are you going?" It is actually a reference to a famous story from St. Peter. This is after the Resurrection and after Pentecost. St. Peter is working to preach the Gospel in Rome and things are getting tense. He senses authorities may be out to get him and he flees the city. Peter has a vision on his way out of Rome...he sees Jesus. He asks the Lord, "Quo Vadis?", "Where are you going?" Jesus simply responds, I am going to Rome to be crucified again..." St. Peter has avoided this moment before, he does not want to make the same mistake again. He turns around and heads back to Rome, where he is martyred, crucified upside down. He said yes to the Lord in the deepest of ways, and we celebrate his entering into the Kingdom.

What does this have to do with Advent? On that retreat, one of the priests, Fr. Tim Daly, preached about adventure... That was the theme for the week. It has the same root as the word Advent. The only difference to the definition is it adds an element of risk. Adventure from the Latin means fortune, chance, occurrence, risk, wonder..." It is time to seek the Lord. It is time to hope. It is time for an adventure, to take a risk, to pray, to prepare, and watch God do something new.

Just as we did last year, the start of Advent is our commitment weekend at the parish. We take time to pray about what God is calling us to do in the coming year. This is an opportunity. If we say Yes to God, the Lord will bless us for taking that risk. The adventure will lead to wonder. I humbly invite you to join me in prayer and make some well-discerned decisions on how you will live out your Faith this year. All of the scriptures in this journal have been taken from each of the four Sundays of Advent for you to pray with and reflect throughout the season on where the Spirit is leading you. This year, we placed the journal within the booklet outlining all of our ministries. It is meant to give you new avenues on how you might journey with Jesus Christ this year. How will you deepen your relationship with God, strengthen your life of prayer? How will you serve? How will you evangelize? How will you give?

On behalf of Fr. Glenn and our staff at Most Precious Blood, please know we pray for you always. We look forward to challenging ourselves and entering this adventure together. We love our community of faith!

In Christ,

Father Josh

How will you share the gifts and blessings God has given you?

Jesus calls us to be missionary disciples...

...to come and follow him and actively share in His mission. Sitting back and quietly doing the minimum required of our faith is not enough. It never was, and never will be. Jesus calls us to action and involvement. Now is the time. The Lord is calling you to help build His Kingdom. Right here. Right now. So take this journal and look through it. Pray about it. Think about it. Follow the weekly reflections, and discuss them with your family. Then, as a family, make the decision to commit to your faith and to your parish in the coming year.

"A member of the lay faithful..."

..."can never remain in isolation from the community, but must live in a continual interaction with others, with a lively sense of fellowship, rejoicing in an equal dignity and common commitment to bring to fruition the immense treasure that each has inherited. The Spirit of the Lord gives a vast variety of charisms, inviting people to assume different ministries and forms of service and reminding them, as he reminds all people in their relationship in the Church, that what distinguishes persons is not an increase in dignity, but a special and complementary capacity for service... Thus, the charisms, the ministries, the different forms of service exercised by the lay faithful exist in communion and on behalf of communion. They are treasures that complement one another for the good of all and are under the wise guidance of their Pastors". (see CHRISTIFIDELES LAICI, no. 20)

How can I be a good steward of my treasure?

- Acknowledge that all of my material possessions are gifts from God.
- Understand that my offering is my “thank you” to such a generous God.
- Given in proportion to the gifts I have received.

I/We have prayerfully considered committing to give to both the weekly Sunday collection and Debt Reduction collection on the 2nd Sunday of each month. When I/we offer my/our sacrificial gift, our parish can meet its current financial obligations and plan for future campus expansion. I/We already give, and will consider a modest increase especially to the weekly Sunday collection.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION FOR CHILDREN

The desire to fruitfully receive the Sacraments grows out of lived relationship with Jesus Christ in the context of the Catholic Church. The period of sacramental preparation builds on the foundation of Faith Formation. After some discernment, parents are encouraged to present their children/youth for preparation to receive Reconciliation, Eucharist, or Confirmation in their second year of Faith Formation. Retreats and preparation sessions are in addition to weekly Faith Formation sessions.

Staff Liaison: Frances Stadler fstadler@oviedocatholic.org

Confirmation

Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation begins when parents and their youth have discerned an openness to live for Jesus Christ in the world. At Most Precious Blood, preparation for youth is a two-year process, with the sacrament being received in the second consecutive year of enrollment (typically in the eighth grade). In addition to Faith Formation sessions, candidates for Confirmation participate in a retreat and sessions that focus on celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation and living as a disciple of Jesus Christ in the world. The Bishop schedules the date for the parish celebration of Confirmation.

Reconciliation and Eucharist

Preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist begins when the parents have discerned that their child is able to choose between right and wrong (usually around seven years-old).

During the two periods of preparation (one for each Sacrament), at least one parent/guardian accompanies the child/youth to sessions and retreats that focus on celebrating the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist for the first time and living it out for the rest of their lives. First Reconciliation is usually received at the end of the fall, and First Eucharist is usually received at the end of the spring. Preparation for these sacraments is a two-year process, with the child receiving the sacraments in the second consecutive year of enrollment.

SAINT JEROME SCHOLARS

A ministry for homeschooling families within our Catholic community that meets weekly to provide parental support and an environment in which our children can learn, and share our faith while forming Christian friendships. Weekly meetings include Blue Knights Boys Club and Little Flowers Girls Club, Saint Studies, Feast Day and Holy Day activities, and Field Trips. All Catholic Homeschooling families are welcome.

Evangelization

“Go to the whole world and proclaim the Good News.”

Evangelization Ministries ensure that our Catholic faith is promoted and that interested persons are properly invited and welcomed into our community.

ADULT ENRICHMENT STUDIES

Adult Enrichment Studies enable parishioners to join together and grow in faith and fellowship through lifelong formation. We do this by studying and exploring both the Bible and the teachings of our Catholic faith. Gathering in groups provides the opportunity to grow in trust, learn along with other parishioners, and grow as disciples. These gatherings help foster a familiar and personal group setting. Adult Enrichment Study groups are held in the comfort of a parishioner's home who has volunteered to be the host home. Studies and groups are available to parishioners college age and older.

Staff Liaison: Donna Scimeca dscimeca@oviedocatholic.org

ANNULMENTS

An annulment is a declaration by the Catholic Church that after careful investigation, shortcomings were discovered in the relationship that prevented it from becoming a marriage. It does not “erase” the civil contract, and it does not render the children illegitimate. It merely states that after thorough investigation, the Church has declared that a marriage, as the Church understands marriage, was not valid. Throughout this process a Priest and Advocate assists and ministers to divorced members within our parish community. The annulment process involves prayer, sharing, gathering information, and healing. Annulment Advocates educate and encourage the person as they guide and assist them through the annulment process. If you are interested in finding out more about the annulment process please contact our Annulment Advocate at the Parish Office to schedule an appointment.

BECOMING CATHOLIC:

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

RCIA is the process by which the Catholic Church welcomes new members into the community of the faithful! It is available to individuals who are interested in the process of becoming Catholic and seeking sacramental initiation into the Catholic Church. The process is divided into various periods that respect and support the individual's faith journey. Participants attend weekly sessions and experience the life of the community through participation in Liturgical Rites, shared faith, and Catholic beliefs. For adults and children over the age of 7 who have never been baptized, the process leads to the completion of the Sacraments of Initiation – Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist – at the Easter Vigil. Those baptized in another Christian faith make a Profession of Faith and receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist through a Rite of Reception into Full Communion at various times throughout the year. Adults who were baptized in the Catholic Faith but have not been catechized are fully initiated and receive the Sacraments of Eucharist and Confirmation with the Bishop. Anyone who has a desire to become Catholic can inquire for this process. Individuals can be those who have never been baptized, persons baptized in another Christian faith, or baptized Catholics who have not been catechized and have not received any other sacraments. The Inquiry Period is the informal beginning of the Christian Initiation process. This time enables the Inquirer to ask questions about the faith and discern if this is where God is leading them at this time in their life.

RCIA SPONSOR MINISTRY

(Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

Sponsors play a crucial role in the Christian initiation process as they guide and mentor Catechumens and Candidates seeking to become Catholic. They are called upon throughout the process to give testimony to the progress and readiness of the participants. Sponsors serve as a guide and connection between the participants and the parish community. Sponsors assist a Catechumen or Candidate by accompanying them along their faith journey through the different periods of the RCIA process.

- A Sponsor must be at least 16 years of age and a fully initiated Catholic, having received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Each sponsor must be an active, practicing Catholic in good standing and if married they must be married in the Catholic Church.
- Sponsors attend weekly sessions along with Catechumens and Candidates to help reinforce the Catholic faith and traditions. The role of a sponsor is to become familiar with the stages and periods of the Christian Initiation process, commit to daily prayer for the person they are sponsoring, and to help draw that person into the life of the parish. Contact the parish office for more information.
